Editors comments:

I find some of the data and arguments of the paper to be very interesting. However, as currently written, I can't send it out for review.

First, the paper assume too much prior knowledge on the part of the reader. Most of readers are not Indonesianists and so will need some that context described. Even those who know Indonesia will need some background on Ambon.

Second, this is currently written for a communication journal. Since we are not, it needs to use less of the jargon appropriate for that journal and drawing of broader social sciences language and theory.

Third, is the matter of language. Ini masih dibaca kayak tata bahasa Bahasa Indonesia dengan kosa kata Bahasa Inggris. In many places, it can be understood only by translating back into Indonesian. This will not work per the first comment. If possible, have a native speaker of English go over this in great detail.

Please note that this journal is a Transformative Journal (TJ). Authors may publish their research with us through the traditional subscription access route or make their paper immediately open access through payment of an article-processing charge (APC). Authors will not be required to make a final decision about access to their article until it has been accepted.

Authors may need to take specific actions to achieve compliance with funder and institutional open access mandates. If your research is supported by a funder that requires immediate open access (e.g. according to Plan S principles) then you should select the gold OA route, and we will direct you to the compliant route where possible. For authors selecting the subscription publication route our standard licensing terms will need to be accepted, including our self-archiving policies. Those standard licensing terms will supersede any other terms that the author or any third party may assert apply to any version of the manuscript.

Now that your article will undergo the editorial and peer review process, it is the right time to think about publishing your article as open access. With open access your article will become freely available to anyone worldwide and you will easily comply with open access mandates. Springer's open access offering for this journal is called Open Choice (find more information on www.springer.com/openchoice). Once your article is accepted, you will be offered the option to publish through open access. So you might want to talk to your institution and funder now to see how payment could be organized; for an overview of available open access funding please go to www.springer.com/oafunding. Although for now you don't have to do anything, we would like to let you know about your upcoming options.

Dear Professor Sulaeman,

Thank you for your immediate response.

This is to acknowledge your message that paper COIS-D-21-00111R1 is the same with the successfully submitted paper COIS-D-21-00127 "Muslim communities' identity transformation through the pela gandong ritual communication in Moluccas Immanuel Church, Indonesia."

You probably have taken the action to decline to revise this paper COIS-D-21-00111R1; however, there has been no changes in the status.

There must have been a glitch in the EM system; nevertheless, we have already made a request from the system administrator for further checking and resolving.

We appreciate your time and kind attention.

Please let us know if you have additional concern that we can be of any assistance.

Have a nice weekend and stay safe.

Editors comments:

I find some of the data and arguments of the paper to be very interesting. However, as currently written, I can't send it out for review.

First, the paper assume too much prior knowledge on the part of the reader. Most of readers are not Indonesianists and so will need some that context described. Even those who know Indonesia will need some background on Ambon.

Second, this is currently written for a communication journal. Since we are not, it needs to use less of the jargon appropriate for that journal and drawing of broader social sciences language and theory.

Third, is the matter of language. Ini masih dibaca kayak tata bahasa Bahasa Indonesia dengan kosa kata Bahasa Inggris. In many places, it can be understood only by translating back into Indonesian. This will not work per the first comment. If possible, have a native speaker of English go over this in great detail.

Please note that this journal is a Transformative Journal (TJ). Authors may publish their research with us through the traditional subscription access route or make their paper immediately open access through payment of an article-processing charge (APC). Authors will not be required to make a final decision about access to their article until it has been accepted.

Authors may need to take specific actions to achieve compliance with funder and institutional open access mandates. If your research is supported by a funder that requires immediate open access (e.g. according to Plan S principles) then you should select the gold OA route, and we will direct you to the compliant route where possible. For authors selecting the subscription publication route our

COMMENTS FOR THE AUTHOR:

Reviewer #3: 1. This article takes on a very important topic on the controversial role of the use of religious symbols in cross-religious experience, a major point criticism regarding the boundaries of interreligious relation among Muslims in Indonesia. The reference to a traditionally multi-religious community of Ambon linked to the pela gandong tradition promises an important contribution in to the field of interreligious dialogue and peacebuilding

2. However, paper failed to show clarity in its purpose. The author focuses on the repeated use of the term communication ritual sometime shift to the issues of identity negotiation with less interest in clarifying the terms, let alone offer conceptual reflection from the case study

3. The author often confused between respondent view and actual view, such as using expression such as religious deviation, syncretism, and religious symbols triggers polemic (should be the use of religious symbol in cross religious events/ritual)

4. Revision in term clarity and consistency in writing purpose and discussion will be substantial. My suggestion is the author to focus on how the event illustrates the contested boundaries of interreligious exchange of experience in post conflict society

Reviewer #4: This paper concerns a very interesting topic. To be suitable for publication in an international journal it requires very major revisions:

1. The author(s) must explain where the Molucas are and which island the article is about.

2. A discussion of the history of Christian/Muslim conflict in the area is essential. How has the history of conflict transformed residential patterns and Christian/Muslim relations. Here it would be good to consider the importance of Post Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD) on inter-groups relations. A core reference is Trauma and Recovery by Judith Herman https://www.amazon.com/Trauma-Recovery-Aftermath-Violence-Political-ebook/dp/B00X2ZW918/ref=sr_1_2?crd=3H5M8KYOJZCQ6&keywords=Herman+PTSD&qid=1644442428&sprefix=herman+ptsd%2Caps%2C161&sr=8-2

3. What are the religious demographics of the area, % Christian and %Muslim

4. The authors need to address Victor Turner's theories of ritual and social transformation.

5. The author(s) need to consider Diana Ecks' distinction between civic and theological pluralism. See; Pluralism: Voice and Vision in teh Study of Religion. https://www.amazon.com/Trauma-Recovery-Aftermath-Violence-Political-ebook/dp/B00X2ZW918/ref=sr_1_2?crd=3H5M8KYOJZCQ6&keywords=Herman+PTSD&qid=1644442428&sprefix=herman+ptsd%2Caps%2C161&sr=8-2

6. The author(s) need to discus pre-conflict pela gadong institutions and practices in greater detail.

Basically civic pluralism is a social contract that enables religious communities to live together peacefully and at a higher level to cooperate on non-religious ventures. Theological pluralism is a search of shared religious (including ritual) meanings. My understanding and limited experience in Ambon indicate that pela gandong was a well developed case of civic pluralism in the re-conflict era and that it was shattered by the conflict.

The events that the author(s) describe were efforts to build theological pluralism. I is very difficult and in many case impossible to establish. It is likely that civic pluralism is a necessary pre-condition for efforts to build theological pluralism. It is, therefore, not surprising the efforts described in this paper faced opposition.

COMMENTS FOR THE AUTHOR:

Reviewer #4: This paper has merit. I requires major editing to be suitable for publication. Springer may be able to provide some English editing services.

As noted previously the authors need to consider Eck's work on pluralism <https://www.jstor.org/stable/40005962> and include a more sophisticated discussion of kinship theory.

Reviewer #4: This is an interesting paper but I don't think it fits for Contemporary Islam.

I would suggest submitting it to either Islam and Muslim-Christian Relations or The Journal of Inter-Religious Studies

Good day.

We are contacting you again because of the below concern.

We noticed that the only complete Word file with the entire manuscript is named Revised Author COIS-D-21-00127R1, and it contains the manuscript twice. The first part does not have comments, and the second part of the manuscript has the article again, but with the author's comments to the reviewers. The Word file is 46 pages; the paper ends on page 22, followed by the comments to the reviewers on pages 23-24, and then the paper begins again with the Abstract on page 25. Please advise how to proceed.

We appreciate it much if you could respond to this e-mail within today, thank you.

1 Grant of Rights

- a) For good and valuable consideration, the Author hereby grants to the Licensee the perpetual, exclusive, world-wide, assignable, sublicensable and unlimited right to: publish, reproduce, copy, distribute, communicate, display publicly, sell, rent and/ or otherwise make available the article identified above, including any supplementary information and graphic elements therein (e.g. illustrations, charts, moving images) (the "Article") in any language, in any versions or editions in any and all forms and/or media of expression (including without limitation in connection with any and all end-user devices), whether now known or developed in the future. Without limitation, the above grant includes: (i) the right to edit, alter, adapt, adjust and prepare derivative works; (ii) all advertising and marketing rights including without limitation in relation to social media; (iii) rights for any training, educational and/or instructional purposes; (iv) the right to add and/or remove links or combinations with other media/works; and (v) the right to create, use and/or license and/or sublicense content data or metadata of any kind in relation to the Article (including abstracts and summaries) without restriction. The above rights are granted in relation to the Article as a whole or any part and with or in relation to any other works.
- b) Without limiting the rights granted above, Licensee is granted the rights to use the Article for the purposes of analysis, testing, and development of publishing- and research-related workflows, systems, products, projects, and services; to confidentially share the Article with select third parties to do the same; and to retain and store the Article and any associated correspondence/files/forms to maintain the historical record, and to facilitate research integrity investigations. The grant of rights set forth in this clause (b) is irrevocable.
- c) The Licensee will have the right, but not the obligation, to exercise any or all of the rights granted herein. If the Licensee elects not to publish the Article for any reason, all publishing rights under this Agreement as set forth in clause 1.a) above will revert to the Author.

2 Copyright

Ownership of copyright in the Article will be vested in the name of the Author. When reproducing the Article or extracts from it, the Author will acknowledge and reference first publication in the Journal.

3 Use of Article Versions

- a) For purposes of this Agreement: (i) references to the "Article" include all versions of the Article; (ii) "Submitted Manuscript" means the version of the Article as first submitted by the Author; (iii) "Accepted Manuscript" means the version of the Article accepted for publication, but prior to copy-editing and typesetting; and (iv) "Version of Record" means the version of the Article published by the Licensee, after copy-editing and typesetting. Rights to all versions of the Manuscript are granted on an exclusive basis, except for the Submitted Manuscript, to which rights are granted on a non-exclusive basis.
- b) The Author may make the Submitted Manuscript available at any time and under any terms (including, but not limited to, under a CC BY licence), at the Author's discretion. Once the Article has been published, the Author will include an acknowledgement and provide a link to the Version of Record on the publisher's website: "This preprint has not undergone peer review (when applicable) or any post-submission improvements or corrections. The Version of Record of this article is published in [insert journal title], and is available online at [https://doi.org/\[insert DOI\]](https://doi.org/[insert DOI])".
- c) The Licensee grants to the Author (i) the right to make the Accepted Manuscript available on their own personal, self-maintained website immediately on acceptance, (ii) the right to make the Accepted Manuscript available for public release on any of the following twelve (12) months after first publication (the "Embargo Period"): their employer's internal website; their institutional and/or funder repositories. Accepted Manuscripts may be deposited in such repositories immediately upon acceptance, provided they are not made publicly available until after the Embargo Period.

The rights granted to the Author with respect to the Accepted Manuscript are subject to the conditions that (i) the Accepted Manuscript is not enhanced or substantially reformatted by the Author or any third party, and (ii) the Author includes on the Accepted Manuscript an acknowledgement in the following form, together with a link to the published version on the publisher's website: "This version of the article has been accepted for publication, after peer review (when applicable) but is not the Version of Record and does not reflect post-acceptance improvements, or any corrections. The Version of Record is available online at: [http://dx.doi.org/\[insert DOI\]](http://dx.doi.org/[insert DOI]). Use of this Accepted Version is subject to the publisher's Accepted Manuscript terms of use <https://www.springernature.com/gp/open-research/policies/accepted-manuscript-terms>". Under no circumstances may an Accepted Manuscript be shared or distributed under a Creative Commons or other form of open access licence.

- d) The Licensee grants to the Author the following non-exclusive rights to the Version of Record, provided that, when reproducing the Version of Record or extracts from it, the Author acknowledges and references first publication in the Journal according to current citation standards. As a minimum, the acknowledgement must state: "First published in [Journal name, volume, page number, year] by Springer Nature".
- i. to reuse graphic elements created by the Author and contained in the Article, in presentations and other works created by them;
 - ii. the Author and any academic institution where they work at the time may reproduce the Article for the purpose of course teaching (but not for inclusion in course pack material for onward sale by libraries and institutions);
 - iii. to reuse the Version of Record or any part in a thesis written by the same Author, and to make a copy of that thesis available in a repository of the Author(s)' awarding academic institution, or other repository required by the awarding academic institution. An acknowledgement should be included in the citation: "Reproduced with permission from Springer Nature"; and
 - iv. to reproduce, or to allow a third party to reproduce the Article, in whole or in part, in any other type of work (other than thesis) written by the Author for distribution by a publisher after an embargo period of 12 months.

4 Warranties & Representations

Author warrants and represents that:

- a)
- i. the Author is the sole copyright owner or has been authorised by any additional copyright owner(s) to grant the rights defined in clause 1,
 - ii. the Article does not infringe any intellectual property rights (including without limitation copyright, database rights or trade mark rights) or other third party rights and no licence from or payments to a third party are required to publish the Article,
 - iii. the Article has not been previously published or licensed, nor has the Author committed to licensing any version of the Article under a licence inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement,
 - iv. if the Article contains materials from other sources (e.g. illustrations, tables, text quotations), Author has obtained written permissions to the extent necessary from the copyright holder(s), to license to the Licensee the same rights as set out in clause 1 but on a non-exclusive basis and without the right to use any graphic elements on a stand-alone basis and has cited any such materials correctly;
- b) all of the facts contained in the Article are according to the current body of research true and accurate;
- c) nothing in the Article is obscene, defamatory, violates any right of privacy or publicity, infringes any other human, personal or other rights of any person or entity or is otherwise unlawful and that informed consent to publish has been obtained for any research participants;
- d) nothing in the Article infringes any duty of confidentiality owed to any third party or violates any contract, express or implied, of the Author;
- e) all institutional, governmental, and/or other approvals which may be required in connection with the research reflected in the Article have been obtained and continue in effect;

- f) all statements and declarations made by the Author in connection with the Article are true and correct; and
- g) the signatory who has signed this agreement has full right, power and authority to enter into this agreement on behalf of all of the Authors.

5 Cooperation

- a) The Author will cooperate fully with the Licensee in relation to any legal action that might arise from the publication of the Article, and the Author will give the Licensee access at reasonable times to any relevant accounts, documents and records within the power or control of the Author. The Author agrees that any Licensee affiliate through which the Licensee exercises any rights or performs any obligations under this Agreement is intended to have the benefit of and will have the right to enforce the terms of this Agreement.
- b) Author authorises the Licensee to take such steps as it considers necessary at its own expense in the Author's name(s) and on their behalf if the Licensee believes that a third party is infringing or is likely to infringe copyright in the Article including but not limited to initiating legal proceedings.

6 Author List

Dear Author,

We are pleased to inform you that your paper is nearing publication. You can help us facilitate quick and accurate publication by using our e.Proofing system. The system will show you an HTML version of the article that you can correct online. In addition, you can view/download a PDF version for your reference.

As you are reviewing the proofs, please keep in mind the following:

- This is the only set of proofs you will see prior to publication.
- Only errors introduced during production process or that directly compromise the scientific integrity of the paper may be corrected.
- Any changes that contradict journal style will not be made.
- Any changes to scientific content (including figures) will require editorial review and approval.

Please check the author/editor names very carefully to ensure correct spelling, correct sequence of given and family names and that the given and family names have been correctly designated (NB the family name is highlighted in blue).

Please submit your corrections within 2 working days and make sure you fill out your response to any AUTHOR QUERIES raised during typesetting. Without your response to these queries, we will not be able to continue with the processing of your article for Online Publication.

Your article proofs are available at:

https://eproofing.springer.com/ePj/index/JCVGGI4TkOFvZBplg3Jq3hUgN5IZS89Q2eF2IT__gG0EFqfHDXQvUvAJxBZooHIFx2Nn0ca-7Bu0JxLhjZkZpIN-h8DXwIFNLCpHPbMykSxNCt_NQuhr0bVL01knR5X

The URL is valid only until your paper is published online. It is for proof purposes only and may not be used by third parties.

Should you encounter difficulties with the proofs, please contact me.

We welcome your comments and suggestions. Your feedback helps us to improve the system.

Thank you very much.

Sincerely yours,
